¿Quién dijo miedo? (Who is Afraid?)
Tues. October 18th

180 minutes, 2010. Who is Afraid, follows René Guillermo Amador Padilla during the Honduran people’s resistance against the military coup that replaced a National Constituent Assembly on June 28, 2009. René joined the National Popular Resistance Front on the first day of the coup. The documentary tells the story of how an unprecedented Honduras arose by people who resisted and took to the streets to stand up for their rights, despite media bias, violence and death. Spanish with English Subtitles.

Los Que Se Quedan (Those Who Remain)
Thurs. October 20th

96 minutes, 2009. Those Who Remain, a winner of the 2009 Los Angeles Film Festival’s Best Documentary Award, is an intimate and discerning depiction of the impact of migration on families and villages left behind by loved ones who have traveled North for work. The documentary shows an emotional encounter with different families from several regions of Mexico who have stayed behind while their family members search for better opportunities. Spanish with English Subtitles.

Crude
Mon. October 24th

105 minutes, 2010. Crude: the Real Price of Oil is the epic story of one the largest and most controversial legal cases on the planet. It is an inside look at the infamous $27 billion “Amazon Chernobyl” case. This real-life high stakes legal drama is set against a backdrop of the environmental movement, global politics, celebrity activism, human rights advocacy, the media, multinational corporate powers, and rapidly-disappearing indigenous cultures.Shown in 100 Stauffer-Flint @7pm.

A Convenient Truth: Urban Solutions from Curitiba, Brazil
Wed. October 26th

52 minutes, 2007. A Convenient Truth: Urban Solutions from Curitiba, Brazil is an informative inspirational documentary aimed at sharing ideas to provoke environmental-friendly and cost-effective changes in cities worldwide. The documentary focuses on innovations in transportation, recycling, social benefits, and the processes that transformed Curitiba into one of the most livable cities in the world. The documentary also includes exclusive interviews from world renowned Curitiba’s mayors Jaime Jerner and Cassio Tanigushi, as well as other brilliant minds who helped make Curitiba a world class model.

All films will be shown @7pm
Admission is free and open to the public!
Location TBA

Fall 2011 Latin American Film Festival
For more information contact the Center at latamst@ku.edu or (785) 864-4213