Mon., Jan. 25
Hall Center Latin American Seminar:
Javier Barroso, Spanish & Portuguese,
“Argentine Literary Representations of Nazism in the New Millennium: Public Safety, Racism and Xenophobia” 3:30 pm. Hall Center for the Humanities, 900 Sunnyside Ave. Open only to faculty, staff and graduate students.

Fri., Jan. 29
CLACS Merienda Lecture: “Sostenible o Sustentable? The State of Water Sources and Distribution in Cattle Ranching Operations in Colombia, Paraguay, and Uruguay.” Speaker: Diana Restrepo-Osorio, Geography. 4:00 pm. 318 Bailey Hall.

Mon., Feb. 1
Tinker Field Research Grant Information Session. 3:00 pm. 318 Bailey Hall.

Thurs., Feb. 4
International Jayhawk Festival. 4:00-7:00 pm. Daisy Hill Commons

Fri., Feb. 5
CLACS Merienda Lecture: “Language and Culture in Nicaragua: Student Research from the Atlantic Coast.” Speakers: Laura Herlihy (CLACS), Taylor Tappan (Geography), Josie Kapicka (CLACS), Matt Fahrenbruch (Geography), Will Fleming (Anthropology). 4:00 pm. 318 Bailey Hall.

Wed., Feb. 10
Coffee with a Diplomat: Grab a cup of coffee and chat with Robert Andrew, Diplomat in Residence! Learn about career opportunities with the US Department of State during this informal session. Complimentary coffee will be provided. 9:00-10:30 am. Kansas Union. Pine Room.

Wed., Feb. 10
Internship Programs with the US Department of State: Robert Andrew, Diplomat in Residence, will share information and answer your questions about internship opportunities with the US Department of State. 11:00 am-12:00 pm. Kansas Union. Kansas Room.

Fri., Feb. 12
CLACS Merienda Lecture: “Sustainable Development in Rural Guatemala.” Speakers: Will Penner (Geography) and Silvia Sánchez-Díaz (Anthropology). 4:00 pm. 318 Bailey Hall.

Mon., Feb. 15
Tinker Field Research Grant Application Deadline. 3:00 pm.

Wed., Feb. 17
Lecture: “The Path of Thought.” Presenter: Mexican artist Nacho Rodríguez Bach discusses his newly installed interactive project. 6:00-7:00 pm. The Commons. Spooner Hall.

Fri., Feb. 19
CLACS Merienda Lecture: “Knowledge, Barriers to Prevention, and Sources of Information about Dengue in rural Costa Rica.” Speaker: Mugur Geana (Journalism). 4:00 pm. 318 Bailey Hall.

Sat., Feb. 20
Brazilian Carnaval hosted by BRASA: 9:00pm-1:00 am, Abe and Jake’s Landing.

Fri., Feb. 26
CLACS Merienda Lecture: “Good Catholics, Bad Behavior: The Role of Sacrilege and Blasphemy in the Lived Religion of Colonial Mexico.” Speaker: Brett Bias (History). 4:00 pm. 318 Bailey Hall.

Mon., Feb. 29
Hall Center Latin American Seminar: Sharada Balachandran-Orihuela, English, University of Maryland, College Park, “Rights Discourse and the Problem of Recognition: Black and Latino Intersections” 3:30 pm. Hall Center for the Humanities, 900 Sunnyside Ave. Open only to faculty, staff and graduate students.

For more information visit www.latamst.ku.edu or call (785) 864-4213.